

Head of Geography - maternity cover, with the opportunity for accelerated progress thereafter (Talent Management Programme).

Within Humanities there is a true passion about each of our subjects and the student's learning in each of these. Fullbrook has provided me with a wide range of excellent CDP opportunities from NQT to middle leader. It truly is a school where a teacher can thrive and develop'.

K. Gordon – Head of History

This role is an exciting career opportunity for the candidate to engage in a tailored training and development programme, moving on from the maternity cover role, to take further responsibilities within the school. This position would have a TLR attached to it, and is a role to grow a career for the future.

We are seeking to appoint a Head of Geography (maternity cover) with the skills, vision and energy to lead and develop our Geography Department. The successful applicant will have a proven track record of outstanding teaching and improving outcomes for students. They will be inspirational, able to build a strong team and be an excellent communicator and team-player. They will be skilled at developing schemes of work, differentiating resources, and driven to see all students make excellent progress.

Fullbrook is a mixed 11-18 Academy classified by Ofsted in March 2017 as Good. In 2017, 84% of students achieved 5 or more GCSEs at 4+ including English and Maths.

At Fullbrook we believe all students should be challenged to achieve more than they ever thought possible, and offer a variety of extra-curricular activities, including the Duke of Edinburgh scheme to enhance our students' talents.

Fullbrook offers a fully, tailored CPD program which supports the needs of staff and encourages progression.

Fullbrook is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful candidate will be required to undergo an enhanced DBS clearance.

Details of the school and an application form are available on our school website.

Closing date for applications is 8 June 2018
